2 - Reimbursement

2. The Government will be reimbursed as follows:
 - A. Troop costs at the rate of $1,332 per person per month from 1 July 2014;
 - B. Troop costs at the rate of $1,365 per person per month from 1 July 2016;
 - C. Troop costs at the rate of $1,410 per person per month from 1 July 2017.
3. Deduction may be made to Troop/Police personnel reimbursement in respect of absent and non-functional major equipment listed in this MOU, in accordance with General Assembly Resolution A/RES/67/261, Section II, paragraph 11.
4. The contingent personnel will receive directly from the peace-keeping mission a daily allowance of $1.28 plus a recreational leave allowance of $10.50 per day for up to 15 days of leave taken during each six month period.

3 - General conditions for personnel

5. The Government shall ensure that the personnel it provides meets the standards established by the United Nations for service with UNIFIL, inter alia, with respect to rank, experience, physical fitness, specialization, and knowledge of languages. The personnel shall be trained on the equipment with which the contingent is provided and shall comply with whatever policies and procedures may be laid down by the United Nations regarding medical or other clearances, vaccinations, travel, shipping, leave or other entitlements.
6. During the period of their assignment to UNIFIL, the Government shall be responsible for payment of whatever emoluments, allowances and benefits may be due to its personnel under national arrangements.
7. The United Nations shall convey to the Government all pertinent information relating to the provision of the personnel, including matters of liability for loss or damage to United Nations' property and compensation claims in respect of death, injury or illness attributable to United Nations' service and/or loss of personal property. Claims for death and disability (D&D) incidents will be handled in accordance with General Assembly resolution 52/177 of 18 December 1997. Guidelines for submitting claims arising from death and disability incidents are detailed in A/52/369 dated 17 September 1997.
8. Any personnel above the strength authorized in this MOU are a national responsibility, and not subject to reimbursement or support by the United Nations. Such personnel may be deployed to the UNIFIL, with prior approval of the United Nations if it is assessed by the troop-contributor and the United Nations to be needed for national purposes, for example to operate the communications equipment for a national rear link. These personnel shall be part of the contingent, and as such enjoys the legal status of members of UNIFIL. The troop/police contributor will not, however, receive any reimbursement in respect of this personnel and the United Nations will not accept any financial obligation or responsibility in connection with such personnel. Any support or services will be reclaimed from reimbursement due the troop/police contributor.

9. Personnel deployed at the request of the United Nations for specific tasks of limited duration may be covered by supplementary arrangements to this MOU as appropriate.

10. National civilian personnel provided by the Government who are serving as part of a formed body of troops/police shall be assimilated with unit members of formed bodies of troops/police for the purpose of this MOU.

11. The general administrative and financial arrangements applicable to the provision of military and other personnel shall be those set forth in the Guidelines for troop-contributors in annex G.
